Agree and Disagree Rubric

Criteria	Excellent 5 Points	Good 3 Points	Poor 1 Points
Post 1 Original Post	The author's post was well thought out, details and defined the issue. The post was supported with data, references and several relevant facts. All the information provided was clear, accurate and thoroughly.	The author's post was contained some details and defined the issue. The post was supported with some data, references and facts. Most of the information provided was clear, accurate and thoroughly.	The author's post contained very little details on the stance, evidence to support it and relevant data and references. Much of the information provided was not clear and inaccurate.
Post 2 Read and Response Posts	The author's rebuttal to their opponent was thoroughly explored and detailed response. All counter-arguments were accurate, relevant and strong.	The author's rebuttal to their opponent was reasonably explored but some major points of opposition were not addressed. All counter-arguments were for the most part accurate and relevant.	The author did not understand the opposite view of the topic. All counter-arguments were not relevant to the topic, no accurate and weak.
Post 3 Did you change your mind	The author's post summarized the issue at hand and included key findings to support stance and defend the stance against opponent's key evidence.	The author's post summarized the issue at hand but lacked some details. The post contained key findings to support stance but the information was not detailed.	The author's post summarized the issue at hand was not complete, lacked details, and did not address the opposing view.

Connection to Readings/Lectures	The post included evidence of the readings, lectures and outside research. At least two sources were used to support the stance.	The post included evidence of the readings, lectures and outside research. At least one source was used to support the stance.	The post included evidence of the readings, lectures and outside research. No sources were used to support the stance.
Criteria	Excellent 3 points	Poor 1 Point
Read and response requirement	The author read and responded to the correct number of posts.	The author did not read and responded to the correct number of posts.
Criteria	Excellent 2 Points	Poor 1 Point
Spelling and Grammar	There were no grammar and/or spelling errors.	There were some grammar and/or spelling errors.	